

New foreign policy of Uzbekistan has become a catalyst for strengthening cooperation in Central Asia

This article contains an overview of Uzbekistan's foreign policy since Sh.Mirziyoev became the president of the nation. Article outlines main trends in Uzbekistan's foreign policy with the focus on Central Asia, which was defined as crucial region for Uzbekistan. By admitting the issues that existed between Uzbekistan and its neighbors, the author emphasizes Sh.Mirziyoev's role in resolving those issues. Moreover, it contains the evaluation of Uzbekistan's foreign policy by leading international mass-media, think-tanks, experts and analysts.